

The Bayshore Village

Morro Bay

Beacon Staff: Rocky Ullum,
Sue Flanagan, Anna Aven,
Kris Hiemstra

Beacon

November 2014

Our Neighbors

Baxter and Yang Cha Gamble

Baxter and Yang Cha Gamble moved to Bayshore Village (163 Sandpiper Lane) this past summer. They plan to winter here and return to Anchorage, Alaska (their home of 33 years), for the spring and summer seasons.

Baxter grew up in the San Joaquin Valley and spent many family vacations in Morro Bay. He and Yang Cha stopped in Morro Bay this past spring while on a Southwest states road trip. Yang Cha went for a morning walk and returned with a handful of real estate brochures. They had been looking for somewhere to escape the Alaska snow in the winter months, and Morro Bay beat out South and Central America, Asia, The South Pacific and 49 states!

Baxter went to Alaska while a member of the U.S. Air Force. He loved it so much that he decided to stay after his 13 years in the service. The Gambles' business, The Printer (<http://www.theprinterak.com>) was started as a small operation in their garage and basement. It has now grown to over 8,000 square feet of production space and is the most diverse printing and sign company in Alaska. Some of their signs have replaced old worn ones at the pool/clubhouse and in other locations throughout our Bayshore Village complex. We also have beautiful new mailbox numbers thanks to Baxter.

Yang Cha was born in South Korea. She worked for many years in the U.S. Air Force medical system in both Texas and Alaska. In 1988, she joined Baxter in starting their business. Baxter says "she has managed the office and finance department with great affection and attention to detail...and her strength in business and as my wife have kept us strong through whatever adversity we've faced". Yang Cha loves the outdoors, says that she hates to cook, but in truth she excels at anything from Korean dishes to Italian, Chinese, Mexican and other cuisines.

The Gambles have been married 38 years. They enjoy hiking and biking, and they look forward to kayaking and ocean fishing when they are in Morro Bay. We are happy to have them as neighbors.

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!!!

Thank You's are in order when Homeowners pitch in for the benefit of all. Sunday, November 2, several homeowners came to work at the pool to clean the pool furniture so that it can be stored for the winter in the corner of the pool deck and be in good condition come next Spring. The homeowners who participated were: Brian and MariAn Hodgson, Charlie and Carol Unger, Bonnie vonRauner, Deanna Richards, Helen Sepulveda and Anna Aven. Liz Regan and Kris Hiemstra came by earlier in the day to begin the process.

Charlie, Bonnie,
Helen, Carol

Deanna, Brian and MariAn

Anna and Helen

Photographs by Anna Aven

Beautiful Visitors

by Rocky Ullum

Bayshore Village has hosted some beautiful visitors who have filled the trees near the pool and throughout our complex: Monarch butterflies! Although she won't take credit for all of them, Helen Sepulveda did her research about the Monarchs and planted a few of their favorite plants in the finger area at her home. The eggs were laid in the plants, they hatched into caterpillars who feasted on the plants and then formed their unique and beautiful chrysalises which look like tiny green lanterns. What a treat it has been to watch all of this!

Photographs by Kris Hiemstra

Morro Bay Events

November 30, 2014 Take the family down Morro Bay Boulevard and Main Street for holiday festivities. Admission is free. For information contact the Morro Bay Merchants Association.

December 3, 2014 Steer toward Morro Bay December 3-8 for the highly anticipated return visit of the majestic tall-ship Lady Washington as well as the topsail ketch Hawaiian Chieftain. During their stay, the Lady Washington and Hawaiian Chieftain will be offering walk-on tours and two options for sailing. For more information visit historicalseaport.org.

December 6, 2014 Come to the Embarcadero in Morro Bay and secure a spot along the waterfront to watch a procession of beautifully decorated Christmas skiffs, yachts, fishing boats, cutters, sailboats, and kayaks at 6:30 p.m. Please call (805) 772-4467 for more information.